SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, you will be on supervised release for a term of :
2 years.

MANDATORY CONDITIONS

1. You must not commit another federal, state or local crime.
2. You must not unlawfully possess a controlled substance.
3. You must refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. You must submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as determined by the court.
☐ The above drug testing condition is suspended, based on the court's determination that you pose a low risk of future substance abuse. (check if applicable)
4. ☒ You must cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer. (check if applicable)
5. ☐ You must comply with the requirements of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (42 U.S.C. § 16901, et seq.) as directed by the probation officer, the Bureau of Prisons, or any state sex offender registration agency in the location where you reside, work, are a student, or were convicted of a qualifying offense. (check if applicable)
6. ☐ You must participate in an approved program for domestic violence. (check if applicable)

You must comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court as well as with any other conditions on the attached page.

DEFENDANT: BENJAMIN LOMAS
CASE NUMBER: DPAE2:16CR331

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
12. If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.
13. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

U.S. Probation Office Use Only

A U.S. probation officer has instructed me on the conditions specified by the court and has provided me with a written copy of this judgment containing these conditions. ### SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

Upon release of imprisonment, the defendant is to be confined to his residence for a period of one month with a curfew set by the U.S. Probation Office. The defendant shall be required to be at this residence at all times except for approved absences for gainful employment, community service, religious services, medical care, and at other such times as may be specifically authorized by the U.S. Probation Office. The defendant shall wear an electronic monitoring device and follow electronic monitoring procedures. The defendant shall permit the probation officer access to the residence at all times and maintain a telephone at the residence without any custom services or portable, cordless equipment. The defendant shall comply with any other specific conditions of home confinement as the probation officer requires. The defendant shall pay the costs of electronic monitoring.

The defendant shall participate in a program at the direction of the probation officer aimed at improving the defendant's literacy and financial capabilities. The defendant shall remain in any recommended program until completed or until such time defendant is released from attendance by the probation officer.

The defendant is to continue his cooperation with the Internal Revenue Service and shall fully cooperate with the IRS by filing any outstanding, delinquent, or amended returns and by timely filing any future returns that come due during the period of supervised release.

The defendant is to properly report all correct taxable income and claim only allowable expenses on those returns. The defendant is to provide all appropriate documentation in support of said returns. Upon request, the defendant is to furnish the Internal Revenue Service with information pertaining to all assets and liabilities. The defendant is to fully cooperate by paying all taxes, interest, and penalties due during the period of supervised release and otherwise comply with the tax laws of the United States.

The defendant shall work with Rabbi Joshua Gruenberg or his successor of Congregation Beth El in developing a program for congregation members to talk to them about how to run a business and how to do it right with specific focus on the consequences of tax evasion.

The defendant shall also work with Joseph Marziello or his successor of The Boys and Girls Club for the period of his supervised release and shall provide full maintenance including parts and labor for the seven (7) stand-alone clubs that are located in Philadelphia.

The defendant is to provide the U.S. Probation Office with full disclosure of his financial records to include yearly income tax returns upon the request of the U.S. Probation Office. The defendant shall cooperate with the probation officer in the investigation of his financial dealings and shall provide truthful monthly statements of his income.

The defendant is prohibited from incurring any new credit charges or opening additional lines of credit without the approval of the probation officer, unless the defendant is in compliance with a payment schedule for any fine or restitution obligation. The defendant shall not encumber or liquidate interest in any assets unless it is in direct service of the fine or restitution obligation or otherwise has the express approval of the Court.

The defendant shall notify the United States Attorney for this district within 30 days of any change of mailing address or residence that occurs while any portion of the restitution remains unpaid.
